

BC's Public Interest Disclosure Act (PIDA) provides a safe, legally protected way for current BC public sector employees (including school districts as of December 1, 2023) to report serious or systemic issues of wrongdoing to their supervisor, a designated officer for the district, or to the Ombudsperson. PIDA prohibits people from retaliating against employees who speak up about potential wrongdoing in the public sector. PIDA is also sometimes referred to as the "Whistleblower" Act.

PIDA Definition: 7(1)(a) a serious act or omission that, if proven, would constitute an offence under an enactment of British Columbia or Canada.
